

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Greater New York/New England Chapters of the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging are accepting abstracts for poster presentations for the November 1-3, 2024 Northeast Regional Meeting to be held at the Newport Harbor Island Resort in Newport, Rhode Island.

We encourage submissions of scientific abstracts, educational reports, and case reports from physicians, physicians in training, technologists, and students, including SNMMI members and non-members to either Rachel Powsner, MD of the New England Chapter (RPowsner@yahoo.com) or Jeffrey Kempf, MD of the Greater New York Chapter (Jeffrey.Kempf@univrad.com), by Friday, October 18, 2024.

Honoring the memory of Dr. Hussein Abdel-Dayem the top three posters judged to have the highest scientific merit during this meeting will receive the following awards:

1st place: $1,000.

2nd place: $750.

3rd place: $500.

All accepted abstracts will be submitted to Clinical Nuclear Medicine as a group meeting publication. Abstracts should be submitted as Microsoft Word documents, with a maximum word count of 500 words, and be divided into headings of Background, Methods, Results, and Conclusions. Embedded black and white images, graphs and/or tables are acceptable.

Each abstract submitted by a trainee (resident, student, etc...) must include a supervising attending or scientist as a co-author and must submit the written approval of the contents of the abstract from this supervisor at the time of submission. Please send your submission email with your name and the title of the article in the subject line. The abstract should include institutional affiliation for each author.

At least one author must be present for a poster to be included in the judging for monetary awards. Posters can be displayed starting the morning of Friday, November 1, but must be on display by Saturday morning at 9 am, to be considered for monetary awards. Posters need to be removed by noon on Saturday. The winners of the abstracts judged by a panel of experts to be of the highest merit will be announced at the conclusion of the poster presentation session at noon on Saturday, November 2. All accepted presentations will be in poster format (4' vertical x 8' horizontal boards).
